

T Here is a Young Man, about Eight and twenty or Thirty years of age, called, John Thacker, gone from the Citty of London, with considerable sums of Silver and Gold, and severall Accompts of Cattle sold, and moneys received: He is of a Brounith complexion, Fairith, thin hair'd, a little yallowish both on head and face, gray eyes, and his hands a little freckeld; he hath been missing since the middle of December, last past; he is of a low stature and strong set, and went away in grayish apparrell: If any such person be found in any part of the Army, I desire he may be secured till further order

HENRY WHALLY,

ADVOCATE.

To the Officer in Chief of each Troope and Company.

---

EDINBURGH:

Printed by Evan Tyler, in the year, 1651.